VESTRY SNIPPETS

Associate Minister

Vestry signed off on a new role description for the Associate Minister which changes it from a focus on St James' to a focus on the whole parish. This best suits the strengths and time availability of the candidate. The position will be for two years at 0.5 FTE.

Since the Vestry meeting it has been confirmed that Rev Victoria Askin has accepted the position and will commence in the parish on Monday 8th May. This was announced at all services on Sunday 2nd April.

Communities Pastor

Our Communities Pastor, Jeremy Jackson has resigned from this position taking effect on 7th April – thank you, Jeremy. We are pleased that he and Louisa will remain in the parish.

Volunteers

There is a shortage of volunteers in a lot of areas around the parish, but particularly needed are people to operate the sound desk at the 10.15am service.

INTRODUCING.....

The Bishop has appointed Revd Victoria Askin as our new Associate Minister (0.5 FTE). Below Victoria introduces herself to us.

Hi, I'm Victoria Askin and I started out life on a sheep and beef farm in Albury, South Canterbury where my family were a part of a small Anglican Church in the village. When I was 11 we moved to Hope, Nelson, but I remained a loyal Crusaders supporter!

I came to Christchurch after secondary school and studied Geography at Canterbury University. Having grown up in the Anglican Church but not really having my own faith, I met Jesus just after I'd finished university which changed the course of my life dramatically.

After trying some different jobs, I decided to travel overseas to England and also see what God was calling me to do. During that time, I lived and worked in a couple of Christian retreat centres which was helpful as I discerned the call into ordained ministry. I came back to New Zealand and was an intern at the Picton and then Stoke parishes in the Nelson Diocese while studying theology at Bishopdale Theological College who offer Laidlaw College courses.

After ordination as a deacon in 2014 I was a curate at the Cobden-Runanga parish, I was priested in 2016 and had two years at Spring Creek as the minister (just outside of Blenheim) and then was the interim minister at Picton for a year. Since March 2020 I've been the Associate Priest at the Riccarton-Spreydon Parish and Senior Ecumenical Chaplain at Lincoln University. I love getting outdoors and walking my dog Ziggy, coffee, most sports, and listening to or playing music.

Victoria is due to start in our Parish on Monday 8th May and we look forward to meeting her.

A MESSAGE FROM NATHAN DURING EASTERCAMP

The first 24 hours have passed and it has been an incredible time with the majority of youth recommitting their lives to God. We stayed for almost an hour after big top to sing and then pray for each other.

Praise God. Nathan (Youth Pastor)

EMOTIONALLY HEALTHY SPIRITUALITY COURSE

The EHS course has 17 attendees and I think that I can speak for most when I say that it is an enlightening course which seeks to bring understanding to the things of the past which may be blocking our ability to be truly in a fulfilling relationship with God and others around us.

We've been learning to spend quiet time each day, reading a short 1 minute study with a question, then a prayer to finish. This has been very achievable and then we come back together for interesting discussions and to learn something new each week.

Derek Chirnside is the facilitator along with Phillipa and they are already talking about running another course in June/July. I would highly recommend that you join the next course...so please contact me if you are interested and would like to know more.
